

USSF Soccer Coaches Clinic

National Youth License

The only course offered by the United States Soccer Federation that focuses on the developing recreational player. The main emphasis of the course is developmentally appropriate activities tailored to the unique characteristics of the growing child from a physical, psychosocial, cognitive, and motor skill acquisition perspective. Detailed analysis of the modern methods of coaching players U6 through U12 is provided together with invaluable feedback from practice coaching in each age group. Successful completion is based on attendance and passing written, oral and practical coaching tests. Priority this year will be given to NTSSA Instructors and 'G' Instructors within local soccer associations.
